Sickness:

THE STUDIO WILL REMAIN CLOSED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE DURING THE PANDEMIC AND LESSONS WILL EXCLUSIVELY BE HELD ONLINE

If you are contagious (cold, fever, gastro, etc.), PLEASE do not come to the studio! This policy is in effect for singing and violin students. Plan ahead and cancel your lesson if you feel an illness coming on (the 24-hour cancellation policy is always in effect).

If you are not contagious, do not hesitate to come to your lesson. For singers, we will hold a non-singing lesson where we can discuss music history, do ear and rhythm training or listen to/choose new repertoire. We will have a fun and productive time together!

If Kathrin is sick and can teach, online lessons can be arranged to limit the spread of illness.

Online Lessons:

Online lessons will be done via the Zoom application. Once registration is complete, you will be sent a code and password as well as detailed user instructions.

Lesson Time and Practice:

Please give yourself enough time to arrive on-time for your lesson. It is expected that you are prepared when you come into the studio, bringing all supplies you need such as copies of music books or photocopies (neatly bound in a 3 ring binder), water, a recording device, a notebook and that you are dressed both comfortably and appropriately.

We want to have fun, work hard and learn so please ensure that all music is prepared well enough that we can work on it and make weekly progress. Students are encouraged to record their entire lesson so that it can be listen to during the week and used as a practice aid during the week. If you don't have a recording device, I will be happy to record you and share the files via dropbox.com.

Daily practice is highly encouraged, even as little as 15-20 minutes a day will already be beneficial; 30 minutes and more will of course greatly support steady progress.
